

DIZZY BONES PRESENTS

BROADCAST JOCKEY

A feral descent into the attention economy

The World Premiere Of

BROADCAST JOCKEY

by Danna-Rae Evasiuk, Miranda Kerridge, Jonathan Stern, and Jennifer Townsend

Broadcast Jockey is a feral descent into the attention economy. A mukbanger and camboy feed the algorithm with hot dogs, bodies, and confessions, chasing dopamine. As the eyeballs pile up, a monster fractures their world into a grotesque fever dream of hunger and intimacy. It never stops watching.

This is a form-breaking, alternative multidisciplinary theatre piece where projections, movement, sound, and poetry are a part of the narrative and dissolve storytelling boundaries. Broadcast Jockey invites audiences onto a weird, funny, wild ride and examines how humans relate to technology, and its implications for our social connections.

Dizzy Bones is a Montreal-based collective of artists creating punk rock, surreal, poetic theatre that plunges into absurdity. Their work is made for a world that no longer makes sense and they've stopped pretending it does.

With Broadcast Jockey they are: Danna-Rae Evasiuk (Playwright, Composition/Sound Design, Video Design - Composition/Sound Design for What Rough Beast, Theatre Ouest End presented by Centaur Theatre, META nominated for Outstanding Independent Production - Playwright of We Don't Blink at Wolves with Teesri Duniya Theatre's Fireworks Development Program), Miranda Kerridge (Playwright, Performer, Video Design - Playwright and Producer, Ketchup!, Joseph G. Green Theatre - Co-Creator of The Cardinal Collective), Jonathan Stern (Playwright, Performer, Video Design, Costume Design - Creator of Binky's Extended Life Insurance Policy, Buddies in Bad Times Theatre Emerging Creator Program), and Jennifer Townsend (Playwright, Director, Prop Design - Director of Sure Thing by David Ives, awarded Outstanding Director at the ADFA One Act Festival - Tour Guide & Storyteller with Edmonton Ghost Tours).
